GOJI STUDIOS AND WILL'S FITNESS PARTNER ON RECIPROCAL ACCESS PROGRAM

The agreement offers members of both groups access to significantly more club locations in both Hong Kong and Mainland China.

Goji Studios announced today it has officially signed an agreement with Will's Fitness, one of China's largest and leading fitness club chains, offering members of both groups access to each other's club locations across Hong Kong and China. This agreement follows the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the two parties last month to cooperate on a reciprocal access partnership.

Access to Over 150 Gym Locations on the Mainland

With today's official launch, effective immediately, current Goji Studios' members with Basic+ and Premium tier memberships gain access to Will's Fitness' network of over 150 club locations across China as a value-added entitlement at no extra charge. Reciprocally, Will's Fitness' VIP and Universe members can access Goji Studios' eight club locations in Hong Kong, including Goji Elite, the group's newest boutique fitness studio in Sai Ying Pun.

Will's Fitness is one of China's largest and leading gym chains, with club locations in numerous cities across the country. For more information on Will's Fitness, please visit www.willsfitness.net.

Goji Studios members or any member of the public interested in details of this reciprocal access partnership and its entitlements can approach any Goji Studios reception counter or contact its customer service department at +852.2523.6655 or membership@gojistudios.com.hk.

With this expanded access, it has never been more convenient for Goji Studios members to keep up with their training and healthy lifestyle, even while travelling on the Mainland. Goji Studios is always committed to improving its offering and services, and continuously strive to be the ultimate One-Stop Health & Lifestyle Hub to meet its members' needs ranging from fitness, nutrition, wellness to beauty.
